Law & Society Review Conference

Law & Society Review is one of the world's premier peer-reviewed sociolegal journals, publishing cutting-edge research bearing on the relationship between society and law, legal institutions and legal processes. Broadly interdisciplinary, the Review welcomes work from many traditions of scholarship concerned with the cultural, economic, political, psychological, or social aspects of law and legal systems. Currently edited by Rebecca L. Sandefur, Professor in ASU's Sanford School of Social and Family Dynamics, Law & Society Review is the journal of the Law and Society Association.

Please join a celebration of Law & Society Review's arrival at Arizona State University with an afternoon conference highlighting recent and forthcoming research in the journal.
